Mr. Whitney Has a Namesake.

A delegation of the people's parate of the emancipation celebration went to the mary yard yesterday to christen the schooner-rigged whale boat, which will head their parate to morrow and which was named the "William C. Whitney." The ceremony took place in the west shipboune in the presence of several dozen ladies and gentlemen, and was opened by Rev. W. H. Lee, who prayed for harmony in the coming colebration. Louis Willia spoke briefly, and William Barker, president of the people's emancipation celebration, delivered an elonient oration. He thanked everybody from the Seurenry of the Navy down, who had contributed the gift, and said they proposed to have a democratic celebration and have the majority rule. Ambilious leaders of other factions who wanted to rule had better keep out of their way or they would be ground to dust. William H. Brown, who will command the ship, stood by with his staff, Laeut. Robert Dortey, Ensign Rouedin Evans, and Aids C. P. H. Cass, and J. Gunnell. The ship is twenty painted, with sails set. It was turned over by Naval Constructor Hiehbern to the following committee of the celebration: A. H. Hall, J. T. Washington, and S. W. Dimmore.

about 40 years of age who said she wanted a place.

"I want a servant and I will try you. Come in," was the reply of the kind hearted lady. Mrs. Harriet Smith immediately entered on her work. Like a new broom she did her work well. At the worked long enough to find out the ins and onte of the house, and one day last week when wanted she was not to be found. Mrs. Sheahard discovered that a gold watch, a set of jeweirr, a gold ring, and a pair of gold sleeve buttons were gone. Detective Carter found the woman in South Washington and by a little strategy found the woman who had the pawn tickets. He recovered the goods. When arrested she had with her a 6-year old child of mixed color. Last night at the fifth procinct station house she cried bilterly and between her team asked only to see a preacher.

A Friend in Need Is a Friend Indeed If the man is a public benefactor who makes two blades of grass grow where one grew before, surely he is a public benefactor, too, who contributes something to the relief of suffering numanity. He is a friend in need. Many who have launched a variety of medicines on the credulous public which do no good, are triends but in name. But when a preparation which comblines both food and medicine in one, and which is universally racognized, like the Celery, Beef, and Iron, is given to mansand, then we may recognize Dr. Henley as a friend to humanity indeed. All druggists sell it.

A Highway Robbery. A Highway Robbery.

Fred. Johnson, colored, and Thomas Wynne, white, were arrested at an early hour yesterday morning for assaulting Michael Donohue, a dairyman, at the corner of Eighteenth and Boundary streets, while on his way home. Donohue was hit on the nead with a blackjack and robbed of $1.20. When searched at the fourth precinct sation house $1.15 of the money was found on the men. The men will be tried in the police court to-day.

Methodist Appointments. The Methodist Protestant conference has closed its annual conferences. The next meeting will be at Easton, Md. The appointments for the year were announced. Rev. J. L. Mills, of the Ninth Street M. P. Church; Rev. J. W. Trout, of the Nor:h Carolina Avenue Church, and Rev. L. W. Bates, of West Washington, were reappointed to the old charges. Rev. S. J. Smith was appointed to the Alexandric church.

There Are a Few Druggists who care more to make a large profit on a worthless article than to wait for the prosperity that ultimately results from honest dealing. These are the men who, when asked for a Benson's Capcine Plaster, will recommend some cheap and trashy substitute or imitation, saying it is "just as good." Sometimes they will do up and sell the miserable imitation without remark, allowing the customer to suppose he has Benson's. If the valueless plaster is returned, Cheap John with say he made a mistake; if not, he has done a good stroke of business. The public are cautioned against John and all his lik. Buy of respectable druggists only. The genuine Benson's plaster has the "Three Seals" trade-mark and the word "Capcino" cut in the center.

Certain styles of Clothing have their day also, but when has any style of garment had so long a day as

THE NORFOLK JACKET? When before have you seen just the same style of coat on the boy 4 years and on his father? When have you seen the same style of coat made from every conceivable style of goods?

This Spring there is a decided in-clination to use the Sailor Suits for Boys, and they are made plain with narrow plaits and wide plaits, like the Norfolk Jackets. In either Sailor or "Norfolk" nothing gives better satisfaction than Flannel or Corduroy.
